Publication of 3000 maps of Redwood City listing civic and community organizations, churches and members of the Chamber of Commerce was announced by Roscoe D. Wyatt, chamber secretary-manager.

All citizens of Redwood City are entitled to one map, said Wyatt, if they call at chamber offices in the city hall. Chamber members may have more than one map if they will state purposes they intend to use the maps for. No charge will be made.

Sudden Heart Attack Fatal to City Manager

The popular city official, who had served Redwood City in various capacities for the past 25 years, had been under physician's care for several months, but had been active until Saturday evening when he was stricken by a heart attack.

Mr. Dimmitt chatted informally with reporters Saturday concerning the approaching city-wide air raid drill and at that time showed no signs of illness.

Mr. Dimmitt, who was 63 years of age, became city engineer in January, 1917; took on the additional duties of superintendent of streets and the water and sewer systems in May, 1923; became acting city manager in 1935; took over as full-fledged city manager in March, 1937. He held the latter position until his death yesterday.

He was born on Nov. 19, 1878, in Lexington, Ky. He attended Austin College at Sherman, Tex., and later transferred to Texas Christian University where he studied engineering.

TO MEXICO IN 1904

Mr. Dimmitt spent a short period of time on a Texas ranch after his graduation from college, then moved to British Columbia, where he engaged in mining activities.

His first engineering work took him to Mexico in 1904 with the Orient Railroad. In 1906 he started work with the Oregon Short Line Railroad and two years later became assistant city engineer at Chickasha, Okla. During the same year he traveled to Brazil. He was associated with the Madera Mamore Railroad in the Amazon Basin for the next three years.

On his return to the United States he worked with the San Diego Highway Commission, the Washington State Highway Commission and the King County, Wash., engineer before coming to Redwood City in 1912.

SERVED COUNTY

Mr. Dimmitt often explained that he came to San Mateo County to accept a job that was to have taken a few months, and stayed here ever since. The first assignment was a preliminary estimate on a bond issue for highways.

He worked with County Surveyor James V. Newman until June, 1914, then was with a contracting firm until January, 1917. He then was made city engineer, and in May, 1923, he was also made superintendent of public service in charge of streets, the water and sewer systems. In 1935, on resignation of City Manager E. A. Rolison, Dimmitt became acting city manager, succeeding to the full title in 1937.

MR. C. L. DIMMITT

In 1914 he married Miss Beatrice Fox, a native of Redwood City and a daughter of George W. Fox. A daughter, June, who also lives in Redwood City, is their only child. Three sisters, Mrs. Frances McBee, Mrs. Linnie Beavers and Miss Lenoir Dimmitt, all of whom live in Texas, are among survivors of the veteran city official.

Mr. Dimmitt was a member of Redwood City Lodge 168, Free and Accepted Masons, and of the Redwood City Kiwanis Club.

His record of business-like administration, combining efficiency and economy, won for him a noteworthy reputation in city government.

Leroy Laurence In Pre-Flight School

Leroy Laurence, 23, onetime welfare commissioner at Sequoia High School and former employe of San Mateo County Title Co., today is in the navy's pre-flight training school at St. Mary's College. Laurence, called up from reserve Dec. 7, has been a yeoman in the navy, stationed in San Francisco. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vane Laurence of 7th Ave., Redwood City.

City Workers Honor C. L. Dimmitt

Although they could not attend the private funeral services for City Manager Charles L. Dimmitt, approximately 70 of the city's employes crowded the flower-decked Franklin & Crowe Mortuary Tuesday morning to honor his memory. At 9 a.m. they filed solemnly out of the chapel.

Mr. Dimmitt, for 25 years an employe of Redwood City and city manager since 1937, died Sunday at his home, 146 Grand St., following a heart attack.

He had been under a physician's care for more than a month but had been active at his office and did not leave the city hall Saturday until 4:30 p.m.

The private services were completed at the mortuary at 10:15 a.m. and the funeral procession, escorted by state highway patrolmen, then drove to Alta Mesa Cemetery for entombment rites.

Two meetings scheduled for chamber of commerce rooms in the city hall were canceled last night in deference to the city manager. Ferris W. Miles, chairman, canceled a meeting of the city traffic safety committee and Carl E. Ward, president, canceled the monthly chamber of commerce directors business session.

Certification ceremonies for civilian defense volunteers originally planned for tomorrow night were also postponed, Mrs. Florence Donnelly, organization clerk, said. They will be rescheduled probably for next week, she explained. A city-wide air raid drill scheduled for Friday also has been postponed.

Bond, Stamp Sales Decline in City

Sales of war bonds and stamps in Redwood City last week fell more than $5000 under the mark set for the week previous according to figures released today by Atty. Daniel E. O'Connell, sales chairman. Last week residents of the city purchased $20,922.50 worth of war securities compared to $26,004.75 in the week previous.

Last week's sales brought the total to date to $882,349 of which $803,056.25 was in bonds, $79,292.75 in stamps.

Dr. Zomb Will Hypnotize

Hal Honore' has been ghost-hunting again.

There will be marvels of hypnotism pervaiding the air at the Fox Sequoia Theater during the late show Saturday night, Aug. 8, at midnight, when the first American tour of the GREAT LONDON HYPNOTIC SEANCE comes to town.

Advance notices bill it as a real show, with the popular mysteries of the mind intimately revealed. Hypnotism, cataleptic coma, somnambulism, human entrancement, table levitation, electric hypnosis, and indeed the entire gamut of the magic of the mind will be made manifest right on the stage at the Fox Sequoia Theater.

Creepy laboratory experiments conducted on actual human subjects, but all in the very friendliest manner will be part of the show. Preliminary information states, "It is not the purpose of Dr. Zomb and his colleagues to create a belief in the supernatural, but rather to tear aside the veil of mystery and leave you standing face to face with the wonders of your own minds." The London Hypnotic Seance will cause you to think. It will amuse you. It will thrill you. It is something absolutely different from anything you have ever witnessed.

All the phenomena presented will be genuinely authentic, and any person attending the theater is invited to come up on the stage and assist.

Belmont Council Extends City Fire Protection

BELMONT—Residents of Laurel Creek in Belmont are going to get a free ride with their fire protection—until next March anyway.

Two Belmont City Council meetings ago a group from the area announced that through an oversight the area had not been included in the Belmont Fire District and consequently they had not been paying for fire protection to either the city fire department or the county fire warden, both of which took turns extinguishing their blazes.

Since then efforts have been made to join the entire area to the Belmont district but because most of the canyon area is unimproved land, residents could not obtain a 51 per cent vote favoring the coverage.

AREA PROTECTED

This week council voted money from city funds to provide the free coverage for homeowners in the area and give them time to make arrangements whereby the improved area would be joined to the fire district.

Council also:

Agreed that the city planning commission should inspect all house plans before building permits were issued on the suggestion of L. F. Reetz, commission secretary.

Granted a permit to Roscoe F. Byrnes to continue construction on a Holly Rd. home delayed because of improper setbacks. Byrnes said he had purchased additional land to accommodate the setbacks.

Accepted the resignation of Willard C. Harry from the planning commission and agreed to hold the position open and later grant it to a Bayview Heights resident should the area vote to join the city Aug. 4.

ASK GAS TAX SHARE

Passed a resolution authorizing the League of California cities to act for it in attempts to obtain a share of state gas tax from San Mateo County supervisors.

Paid $2145.81 in city bills, $634.06 of which is to apply on fleet insurance covering city vehicles. Approximately three-quarters of this will be returned to the city by the fire and other districts.

Noted that papers covering a lease of Southern Pacific railroad property to the city for a commuter automobile parking lot were completed and ready for signatures.

Heard Police Chief Fred Johnson explain that city policemen were now starting their vacations with other police doubling up to take care of absences.

Forwarded $103 to San Mateo County Civilian Defense headquarters to apply on helmets for volunteers.

Up to June 1, the United States had shipped 1,500,000 pounds of dehydrated vegetables under lease-lend.

In Navy

City Councilman W. M. (Bill) Werder, elected in 1940, today was commissioned lieutenant, junior grade, in the United States Naval Reserve. Werder will ask for a temporary leave of absence from the council, may resign later.

Aged Aid Benefit Payments Decline

The number of persons receiving aid to the needy in San Mateo County dropped from 2395 in January to 2305 in June and direct aid extended to these needy persons went from $53,125 in January to $50,690 in June, a study of state and local public assistance in California counties, made public Tuesday by California Taxpayers' Association, shows.

Aid to the needy aged in the county was given to 1199 persons in January and to 1182 persons in June, the association found. In January, 30 persons received aid to the needy blind, compared with 32 persons in June. Aid was given to 218 dependent children in January and to 175 in June. County indigent aid was extended to 948 persons in January and by June their number had dropped to 916.

Councilman Called By Navy

Redwood City earned another star in its service flag this week when City Councilman W. M. (Bill) Werder received notification of his appointment as lieutenant, junior grade, in the United States Naval Reserve. Werder is the second Redwood City councilman to join the armed forces since the outbreak of the war. First was Col. Henry W. Edmonds, called up from reserve by the army.

Werder said he would ask the council to grant him a leave of absence until he completes his officer training course. The councilman seeks to qualify as plotting officer on an aircraft carrier.

Werder is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig E. Werder and has lived in Redwood City 20 years. He is a graduate of Sequoia High School and Stanford University ('31). He was engaged in the real estate and insurance business until 1939 when he took over an automobile agency. He was elected to the council in 1940.

Werder has held high offices in the chamber of commerce, Lions Club, and other civic and fraternal groups.

He is expected to present his application for a leave of absence to the city council tonight. He was instructed to report to San Francisco naval authorities this afternoon.

To represent this county at the state convention on the various committees, the following were elected: Boys' State, Harry C. Welch of Belmont; finance, M. A. Grant of Redwood City, and national defense, Andrew Blakely of Redwood City.

Installation of various post officers will be held, as follows: Bellehaven, July 29; San Bruno, July 30; San Carlos, Aug. 4; Belmont, Aug. 6; South San Francisco, Aug. 10; San Mateo, Aug. 11; Redwood City, Aug. 12, and Daly City, Aug. 13.

Dread Sickness Peril to Horses

SAN CARLOS—Dr. J. H. Whitman, veterinarian, today warned horse owners in San Mateo County to beware of a dread sleeping sickness which last year killed or rendered useless a number of valuable animals. This month the valuable three-gaited "Duke" owned by Lawrence J. Steinhardt of Woodside has succumbed to the disease.

Dr. Whitman said he treated 22 cases last year. Two died, five more were later destroyed, and four are still in pasture, their recovery doubtful. The disease attacks the brain, he explained.

A vaccine treatment, about 95 per cent effective, has been devised, Dr. Whitman said. The disease is believed to be mosquito-borne.

State, National G.O.P. Leaders Confer

Wendell Willkie, No. 1 G.O.P. leader recently conferred for two hours with Atty. Gen. Earl Warren, non-partisan candidate for governor. While the details of the conference were not disclosed, Willkie was reported to be impressed with Warren's views.

Visiting California recently, Wendell Willkie, No. 1 G.O.P. leader, took time out for a two hour conference with Atty. Gen. Earl Warren, California's non-partisan candidate for governor, it was revealed today.

"I intend," Warren said, "to keep California's hard won industrial leadership from collapsing after the war is over.

"Naturally, I cannot discuss at this time everything that was said by Mr. Willkie and by me. But I can say that we agreed that labor, which has voluntarily given up many basic rights for the duration of the war, must not be stripped of those rights permanently, under the guise of war necessity.

"We also agreed that practical plans must be set in motion now to keep our American workers employed when the war is over, and to find places for men returning from the battle front in the service of their country.

"Even in the throes of war," the fighting, non-partisan candidate for governor declared, "we must anticipate and prepare for the hard problems that will come with peace. A repetition of the scandalous relief conditions which existed under Olson's administration of the SRA must not and cannot be tolerated in the post-war period."

Mr. Willkie was reported by friends to be strongly impressed by Warren's forthright position on the war issues, and Warren's plans for post-war California.

Commander Paints Picture Of Bright Opportunity

Construction of the half million dollar basic maritime training academy at San Mateo Pt. is ahead of schedule and the navy hopes to start training 350 cadet deck officers and engineers there by Aug. 15. This disclosure was made by Comdr. Malcolm Crossman at a meeting of the Redwood City Exchange Club Tuesday night.

When the school starts, the commander predicted that the Peninsula will see a turnover of 350 cadets each two months. But the cadets, he warned, will get liberty only on Saturday and Sunday afternoons and will be so busy studying that in all prabability their midshipmen's uniforms will be little in evidence off the "campus."

Commander Crossman painted bright opportunities for the young man who seeks a life at sea. The original three-year training course for deck and engine room maritime officers has been cut to an intensive 16-month educational capsule, which includes about two months at a basic school, such as the one at San Mateo; six months at sea; then another eight months at New York for advanced training.

Applicants must be unmarried, 18 to 23 years of age with one additional year of age allowed for each year of college training, of sound physique and have certain minimum scholastic attainments. Applications are forwarded to Washington, and those accepted are placed on a waiting list. The list now comprises 500 names, Crossman said, but it is expected that the opening of the San Mateo school will soon reduce it to a minimum.

Cadets are paid $65 monthly while in school. Their books, board, lodging, and $220 worth of uniforms and clothing are furnished by the government.

While at sea their $65 monthly is augmented by special war bonuses which bring the pay to over $100.

After completion of the course the cadets "sit" for their licenses as third deck or engine room officers. Only one has failed to pass his examinations, Crossman said. Both the naval reserve and the merchant service are then open to the young officers.

The commander gave the names of 10 San Mateo County boys already in the maritime school. They are Harold W. Clark of Redwood City, now at the Treasure Island cadet school; Leon Machell of Redwood City on the SS. Henry Longfellow of the Coastwise Steamship Co.; Warren D. Clark II of San Mateo, on the SS. Mathew P. Deady, American Hawaiian Steamship Co.; Donald V. Lawson, San Mateo, cadet school; Raymond J. Little, San Mateo, aboard the SS. Robert Fulton of the McCormick Steamship Co.; Rollin E. Meyer and Douglas C. North of San Mateo, both at cadet school; Alexander Shields of San Mateo abord the SS. James Russell Lowell of the McCormick line; Milton F. Smith of Burlingame at cadet school; Donald E. Kranich of San Bruno aboard the SS. Henry Longfellow of the Coastwise Steamship Co.

Landlord Sign-up Lags in County

Of an estimated 30,000 housing units in San Mateo County subject to the landlord registration law, only 12,000 are covered by application forms issued to date according to figures released today by Dr. Murray R. Benedict, director for the federal rent freezing authority. The figure is substantially lower than the Bay Region average.

Dr. Benedict again urged landlords to register immediately and to avoid last-minute inconveniences. Landlords failing to register are subject to severe penalties.

At the same time he also revealed that some landlords are erroneously mailing their filled out forms to Washington. They should be brought personally to the registration centers of each county.

Cotton is being planted and picked somewhere in the world every day of the year.

Priorities Emphasize Maintenance Needs

Shortages and priorities that have filled the newspapers for months seem a far cry from housekeeping, but Mrs. Homemaker is now face to face with them—and with one of her biggest jobs, that of making her supply of kitchen tools and appliances last.

While patriotic America uses its steel, nickel, plastics and other materials for tanks, planes and guns, household appliances become almost as precious as jewels. We have not yet reached the stage where we put the refrigerator and the range in the safe at night, but we do treat them with a new respect. Manufacturers' instruction booklets are being pulled from the back of drawers, dealers are being asked many questions, home economists are being queried—all in an effort to find out the whys and wherefores of "keeping them going and making them last."

Most important to "Duration-ize" all appliances is cleanliness. In the case of ranges, it is good to wipe them off with a damp cloth after they are cooled. Be sure not to let acids, such as fruit juices remain on the enamel. Heating units should be cleaned carefully and frequently. Gas burners may be kept clean by preventing food from boiling over. When they do need cleaning, they may be removed and washed and dried with the holes turned down.

In the case of refrigerators, defrosting is of major importance and instructions should be followed carefully. An effort should be made not to overcrowd the refrigerator, as this prevents circulation of air. The inside should be washed regularly and an effort made not to let spilled foods remain. In taking out ice trays or when defrosting, sharp instruments or picks should never be used.

In the case of laundry equipment, the washing machines should be left clean and dry and covered over if kept in a dusty place. Ironers should be cleaned and oiled regularly and the motors should never be left turned on when not in use. Cords should be inspected frequently. Vacuum cleaners, radios, toasters, mixers and various other types of appliances all can be kept running longer and more efficiently with proper care and frequent inspection.

Don't wait until damaged parts wear out. Timely repair by your authorized appliance service dealer will save you trouble and money.

Officials Honor Mr. Dimmitt

Said Mayor Floyd D. Granger: "To better understand persons you must work with them and during my short term as mayor, I have come to respect Mr. Dimmitt and his judgment. Mr. Dimmitt was more than a faithful employe and will be a great loss to the official family and the citizens of Redwood City."

Mark E. Ryan, fire chief, said: "I have known Mr. Dimmitt probably as long as anyone in this city and I consider it an honor and privilege to have worked with and for him. He was 'Exhibit A' in good government."

T. Clark Rice, county recorder, said:

"Mr. Dimmitt was a man I've always admired and looked up to. He was a man a person could well follow and consider himself successful."

Said Justice of the Peace Edward I. McAuliffe:

"It was a great shock to hear of his passing. I've worked with Charlie a long time and know his passing will be a great loss."

District Atty. Gilbert D. Ferrell said:

"The sudden death of Mr. Dimmitt comes as a very great shock to all of us. His passing is a distinct loss to our community and leaves a void that will be difficult to fill. He was a very capable public official, actuated by a high sense of duty and loyalty to his responsibilities."

M. A. Grant, county engineer, declared:

"We came to the county about the same time and worked together for many years. He was a wonderful engineer and a splendid man. Believe me, Redwood City has suffered a tremendous loss."

Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr. studied to be an architect at Cornell University but switched to agricultural courses.

Look over all of the appliances in your home. Check particularly those appliances you use constantly like the range, vacuum cleaner, refrigerator, washing machine and iron or ironer. Do any of these need repair or reconditioning?

You will be wise now to Duration-ize your appliances with timely repair. That means catching repairs in time before a complete breakdown occurs.

If your old equipment must be replaced—do it now. Some new appliances are still available in store stocks. Otherwise be sure to take care of what you have. Keep it in repair. Make sure it will carry on with efficient service. It is a wartime necessity.

2 menus and a recipe that will stimulate lazy summer appetites

When the thermometer soars, appetites go into a natural decline. And the two best ways to revive these lagging appetites is (1) to give particular thought to eye-appeal in planning meals and (2) plan loads of surprises in both kinds of food and in manner of service.

Serve plenty of fresh fruits and cool crisp salads and chilled beverages, but balance these with more substantial foods. And be sure to include at least one hot dish in every menu—digestion rebels when everything is icy.

And now—the two menus—all easy-to-prepare, all brimming with appetite appeal, all tested in the kitchens of the Safeway Homemakers' Bureau.

MENLO PARK NEWS

BY D. E. O'KEEFE

A poll of the citizens of Menlo Park was taken on the contest for governor last Tuesday with the result that Earl Warren received 85 votes and Governor Olson 53. There is hardly any doubt but that Warren will be the next governor.

The county swimming pool on the Flood property is well patronized by the youngsters of Menlo Park, as many as 50 a day visit the pond. It is to be regretted that some public conveyance is not established between here and the pool.

Two new business houses are soon to open in Menlo Park. One is to be a grocery and meat market and the other a bakery. The rapidly growing population is accountable for these enterprises.

Sister Mary Catherine Patrice of Rapid City, S.D., is here on a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Kearney. She is accompanied by Sister Antonine. The nuns will remain in Menlo Park for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. James of Pittsburgh, Pa., have bought a home in Stanford Park. Mr. Kane contemplates entering Stanford.

Dr. Mackton of Pine Ridge is here to open a dental office on Oak Grove Ave. The doctor and his pretty wife will establish a home in Felton Gables.

Mrs. Myra Moss, nee Kurtz, is here from Tacoma on a short visit with her mother, the popular city clerk.

James Hanaley, an employe of the custom house, San Francisco, has bought a home in Flood Park. He will move his family there next week.

Thomas O. Dolan Heads Knight Council

Thomas O. Dolan of Menlo Park was installed as grand knight of Palo Alto Council 2677, Knights of Columbus, in a well-attended ceremony Wednesday evening at the Native Sons Hall, Palo Alto.

Among those in attendance was Edward Jurgensen, grand knight of San Mateo Council.

County May Gain By Spending Money

San Mateo County stands to gain $40,000 from its care of Japanese at Canyon Sanatorium and Community Hospital in San Mateo, the office of Dr. C. C. Gans, county health director, announced.

Yesterday, just prior to the final reading of the 1942-43 fiscal budget, the board of supervisors granted an additional allocation to each institution of $5000 for the care of Japanese sick, for which the federal government, it is anticipated, will pay $50,000.

Dr. Gans' office said today that in figuring the health department budget the operation of the hospitals had been figured with between 35,000 and 40,000 patient days as the basis.

De Patta Hits 'Chiseling' In Junk Drive

Charges and counter charges flew through Redwood City as Frank A. De Patta, chairman of the war scrap metal drive, attempted to dispose of 40 tons of metals he and civic groups have collected so far.

De Patta charges that city junk dealers are chiseling on metal prices when they offer only $7 a ton for the collected metal while San Francisco concerns offer $10.

Speaking for the junk dealers Uke Popik, junk dealer at 715 Main St., maintained that De Patta was attempting to foist loads of mixed iron and tin on Redwood City dealers and that tin scrap was worth "nowhere near" $10 a ton.

"The federal government," the junk dealer claimed, "has set a price of $12.98 for scrap iron delivered at mills in Niles. So besides sorting the less valuable tin we must also pay a $2-a-ton hauling charge to get the metal to Niles. That doesn't leave us any scandalous De Patta charges."

Sam Gold, the other city junk dealer, made the same claim—tin isn't worth as much as iron and hauling costs further cut profits.

Popik offered to make a "dicker" with De Patta in the event De Patta will haul the iron to Niles. Making his claim, he said, "We'll practically allow him to sell it at our company prices if he'll haul."

Of the 40 tons De Patta has on hand 15 were collected by Sea Scouts and 25 tons by a soft drink concern.

Profits will go to charitable organizations.

Fire Is Bad News To Unidentified Person

WOODSIDE — Firemen in Woodside have bad news for someone in Redwood City but they don't know where to find him.

This is how it happened: Tuesday at 5:04 p.m. they answered a call for a vacant house which was threatened by a blaze in a garage on the same property.

Firemen believe the fire was of spontaneous origin, resulting from paint and greasy rags in the garage.

Before they could extinguish the blaze they had to call in three trucks from the San Mateo County Fire Department to fight a stubborn grass fire which covered two acres and threatened other houses in the neighborhood.

After flames finally were extinguished the department inquired who the owners were and learned they were a family named DeWitt which had moved to Redwood City. Checks through the telephone book and county offices have been fruitless in locating the owners, however.

Council May Support Acting City Manager For Permanent Post

Clarence W. Eltringham, Redwood City's clerk and treasurer, today was acting city manager, succeeding the late Charles L. Dimmitt, and it appeared that he would have some support on the city council for permanent appointment to the position.

Meanwhile, it was learned that the council plans to split the positions of city manager and city engineer, both filled by Mr. Dimmitt, a plan which will cost the taxpayers an estimated $3000. Two cents have been added tentatively to the agreed tax rate of $1.33 to cover the additional expenditure, it was learned. So far as could be determined, no definite proposal has been made to fix the salary for each office. Mr. Dimmitt received $5400 per annum.

The council met last night in a brief public session, then went into executive huddle. Eltringham's appointment, a recorded opinion that the city manager need not be a licensed engineer, and several routine matters occupied the entire public meeting.

In the background, however, was the tenure of Police Chief C. L. Collins, observers believed. Since the police chief may be removed only by the city manager, it was held probable that Councilman Carl (Ike) Britschgi, outspoken opponent of Chief Collins, would insist on a city manager who would agree to Collins' ouster.

City Atty. Paul A. McCarthy ruled today that a majority vote of the council would be sufficient to appoint both city manager and city engineer, but five of the seven council votes would be required to remove either officer once appointed.

This brought into the spotlight the fact that Councilman W. M. (Bill) Werder, commissioned in the navy yesterday and awaiting orders, might soon leave the city board on a 90-day leave of absence, further complicating an already complicated council situation.

One candidate for Mr. Dimmitt's position was Richard E. Savage, 20-year resident of Redwood City, who once served under the late city manager and also was employed as city engineer of Porterville. At the present time he is engaged in defense work.

Others mentioned for the office are R. A. Klassen, San Carlos city engineer, and Willis G. Frost, Redwood City, a friend of Mr. Dimmitt and also an engineer.

Friends of Ernest A. Rolison, Mr. Dimmitt's predecessor as city manager and later county executive, have notified him of Mr. Dimmitt's death in the hope of interesting him in returning to Redwood City. They said he is now in Washington, however, holding an important federal position.

Eltringham's appointment technically was as city manager pro tem with the provision that he continue to receive the salary he receives as city clerk and treasurer. He will retain his other positions along with that of manager.

The council will meet again next Monday.

Unidentified Target Causes Midnight Alert

Redwood City police, firemen and civilian defense officers answered an alert Monday night at 11:14 o'clock broadcast by the army.

When unidentified targets were later identified as friendly the alert was lifted at 12:07 a.m., Fourth Interceptor Command explained.

Redwood City Police Adds New Patrolman

Theodore Moudakas today had joined the Redwood City police department to fill the vacancy created when Policeman James Flynn took a year's leave of absence. Moudakas previously passed his civil service examinations and is now serving a probationary period with the department, it was explained.

Press Chiefs Tell How Japs Plunged Into War With U. S.

LOURENCO MARQUES, Portuguese East Africa, July 23 (Delayed) (AP)—To China and her millions the outbreak of war between the United States and Japan was a complete surprise—but not to the Japanese and their henchmen in occupied areas there.

Despite amazing secrecy of the titanic move, most Japanese in China knew war with another foe was near, while Americans and other foreigners and Chinese wishfully felt it couldn't happen.

A million Japanese soldiers and another million Japanese civilians in China were in the know. And as one man they kept their mouths shut.

REVELATION COMES

The revelation of how Japanese authorities had marshaled the legions of their countrymen in China into regimented secrecy came out after Pearl Harbor.

Then they unpocketed detailed plans of the war's prosecution which, of course, included the use of uncounted thousands of Japanese "civilians" in China in aiding the armed forces in every describable way.

Pearl Harbor stunned a majority of Americans in China, just as it did the people at home. The enemy's initial successes caused amazement and alarm over the safety of Hawaii; wonderment about defense preparations at the mid-Pacific outpost; and about what the army, navy and air force were doing that December morning.

Japanese propaganda played upon the theme that the defenders "were out the night before."

ACHIEVEMENT OF ALL TIME

To the elated Japanese the lick gotten in at Pearl Harbor was the achievement of achievements in their empire's history.

To the more sober Japanese the bombs that blasted Pearl Harbor started a fire which will either make the Japanese empire the world's greatest or break Japan utterly.

To fanatical Japanese who cheerfully hurl themselves at death there's no defeat possible. Japan is everything, Japan is divine, therefore she can not lose.

The minute Tokyo flashed the news of the attacks, Japan's long-perfected machine in occupied China went into action swiftly and overwhelmingly.

With amazing promptness and precision the Japanese descended in the early morning hours upon Allied nationals, their institutions and offices throughout occupied China.

PRESS OFFICE SEALED

The Associated Press office in Shanghai, like many others there, was sealed by Japanese who arrived with minutely detailed diagrams of every establishment.

The procedure clicked precisely. By noon everything American, British and Dutch had been bagged. In Shanghai army and navy gendarmes plastered up thousands of big notices telling everybody how to behave. The month "December" had been printed on the notices but the date was left blank.

The neatly printed posters, phrased in correct English, bore no evidence of hasty preparation; all indications were that they had long been prepared. Some even had been yellowed from exposure.

The Japanese later charged big American and British espionage and sabotage rings had been operating but they certainly made no immediate efforts to nab them.

GENDARMES APPEAR

It was afterward that the gendarmes appeared, arresting correspondents, bankers, educators and merchants in an effort to prove their flimsy contention that every American in China was a spy.

As the hostilities progressed enemy nationals throughout occupied China felt the increasing impact of war. By mid-Summer the welfare and safety of those remaining behind was becoming increasingly grim.

LOURENCO MARQUES, Portuguese East Africa, July 23 (Delayed) (AP)—The usually cordial voice of Ambassador Joseph C. Grew came cold and reserved over the telephone that sunny Sunday morning in Tokyo last December.

I had called to ask the American envoy about a message I had just reecived telling of President Roosevelt's personal appeal to Emperor Hirohito to intervene to save the peace.

"There's nothing I can say; absolutely nothing at this time," he said. The call gave him the first inkling of the critical turn in the Japanese-American negotiations.

CALCULATING HAND

The Japanese military had played its usual calculating hand and stopped Washington's message to Grew telling him of the President's 11th hour action.

But Japanese censors slipped somehow in permitting correspondents to receive theirs.

The embassy's first message was received in Tokyo at 10 a.m. but was not delivered until nine that night. Short hours before Pearl Harbor was attacked.

Thus did the warmakers make sure no last minute effort by the United States could head off the conflict.

It was a restless, nerve-shaking 11 hours that Grew spent from the time of the call from the Associated Press office until he finally received the state department's pilot message stating an important message from the President had been sent to the emperor.

LIGHTS BURN BRIGHTLY

Lights burned brightly that night in the embassy offices and residence as Grew and Eugene H. Dooman, embassy counselor, conferred in the envoy's walnut paneled library.

While Grew puffed at his pipe in silence, Dooman called Foreign Minister Shigenori Togo's secretary.

Dooman explained that an important communication had just come from Washington and that regardless of the hour Grew must see Togo that night.

Polite surprise seemed to be the attitude of Togo's secretary.

An hour later—at 10 o'clock—the secretary telephoned and said Togo would wait at his official residence until midnight for Grew.

Code clerks labored meanwhile behind locked doors over the text of President Roosevelt's communication to the emperor. They delivered a completed text at 11:45 p.m.

Grew and Dooman looked vainly for a chauffeur and finally the ambassador was driven through Tokyo's deserted streets to Togo's residence, just behind the Diet building, by Merrell Benninghoff of the embassy staff.

Grew, wearing a gray business suit, entered slowly and gravely and shook hands with Togo. Greetings exchanged, they sat down in blue plush overstuffed arm chairs in a second floor drawing room.

It was understood that Grew saw a look of surprise on Togo's face.

From all indications the military had not informed the foreign office of its plans to attack Pearl Harbor—which started almost at the moment Togo was with Grew.

Togo seemed to think the midnight hurry and bustle was unnecessary; that a morning conference should have been adequate.

Most Americans in Tokyo naturally were unaware of the momentous developments. Besides missionaries and the embassy staff, only correspondents and National City Bank of New York and Standard Oil employes remained.

Virtually all of them were rounded up quickly by squads of gendarmes and police and marched off to prison or internment bright and early Monday morning.

Brothers Injured in Bayshore Accident

James R. Lepley, 24, and his brother, John, 20, both of San Francisco, were injured Tuesday when the automobile James Lepley was driving crashed into an unoccupied car parked at the edge of Bayshore Hwy., one quarter mile north of Millbrae.

John Lepley suffered lacerations, abrasions, and a broken right knee cap. James incurred a possible fractured shoulder. The condition of both was reported good at the South San Francisco Hospital.

Highway patrolmen said the parked car was owned by Joseph S. Cain of San Mateo.

IMPORTANT NEW INSTRUCTIONS—REVISED JULY 1942

How to Fight FIRE BOMBS

OFFICIAL INSTRUCTIONS
U. S. Office
of Civilian Defense

These new instructions are based on exhaustive research by technicians of OCD and the Chemical Warfare Service, U. S. Army. They represent changes now adopted also by British officials after careful analysis of the results of both this and the old method during actual air raids. Both American and British tests prove that a jet of water, as illustrated below, will knock out the fire bomb in less than one minute—before major fires can get started. Fire (not the bomb) is the chief danger, and a jet of water is the best weapon. Respect the fire bomb but do not fear it.

BRING YOUR FIRE-FIGHTING EQUIPMENT TO THE SCENE QUICKLY

The small magnesium bomb, which is dropped in great numbers, will go through any ordinary roof. Store your equipment where it can be reached easily, and keep it ready for instant use.

SHOOT A JET OF WATER ON THE BOMB AT ONCE

Take cover behind a door, chair, or other furniture, if you can, when you do this. The jet knocks the bomb out quickly. There will be a burst of white flame, and a scattering of molten metal, most of which will be driven away from you by the force of the jet.

QUENCH PROMPTLY THE REMAINS OF BOMB AND ANY OTHER FIRES

If any small fires are started the jet will put these out easily. Within a short time you will be free to attack any other bombs which may have fallen nearby. Be absolutely sure all the fire is out before you leave.

THE PUMP TANK HOLDS ENOUGH WATER TO PUT OUT TWO BOMBS WHEN JET IS USED

This is the 4-gallon pump tank extinguisher which the Office of Civilian Defense will distribute in target areas to the air raid warden service. The tank can be refilled while the pump is being used.

JET MAY PREVENT ACTION OF BURSTER

Some bombs have a small burster attachment. When the jet is used promptly, the bomb may be destroyed before the charge goes off.

KNOW YOUR EXTINGUISHERS

All fire extinguishers that look like this can be used on the bomb because they contain water or water solutions of chemicals. They include the soda-acid, foam, and gas cartridge types.

Other types of extinguishers should not be used on the bomb because they do not contain water, but they can be used on fires started by bombs. Remember that your garden hose is one of the best fire-fighting devices so long as there is water pressure.

USE SAND ONLY IF A BOMB FALLS WHERE IT CANNOT START A FIRE OR IF WATER IS NOT AVAILABLE

This can be done by dropping a bag of sand over the bomb, or by the shovel-and-bucket technique.
